No further strikes

Dear Sir or Madam,

the German Train Drivers' Union (GDL) and Deutsche Bahn AG have agreed to set up an independent pay agreement for train drivers on the basis of the moderation results of 27 August 2007.

They will start with pay negotiations immediately and conclude them in January 2008.

We consider the risk of a strike to have been averted.

Should you have any questions, please get in touch with your usual contact of Intermodal.

Yours faithfully,

Uwe Bakosch

(Executive Vice President Network Management of Corridors)

Uta Freund

(Head of Productmanagement)
